

FCC:

Do not vote to overturn net neutrality. There is too much room for greed and monopolization to take hold in another utility. This will limit American citizens access to the open internet, it will hinge on civil liberties; namely the freedom of speech. This will inadvertently lead to internet censorship like is seen in restrictive regimes in socialized countries.

Vote for the American people.